An excellent entry from Laraib in 8c for our Young Writers poetry competition. See Miss Rawcliffe if you would also like to enter

RAGE! DESTATION! AGITATED!

Turmoil erupted as the audience waited.

Never again would my heart beat to life's rhythm.

The individual before me smirked, their chains being led to a prison.

Drops of loss tear down from the sky.

A young teen fallen asleep forever without his family's goodbye.

Never again would I have faith in safeguarding my lover.

The revolt of a blade, a killer's golden buzzer.

Giggles, venting and bliss ripped away from my hand.

Why did the blade slash into his waist, was what I didn't understand.

Never again will 1 to 50 adolescents be stabbed continuously without a reason.

It's about time the bells of repugnance clashed with the sirens of cohesion.
